Photos Recorder/Paul Franz

Conway's own Tom Ricardi will address:
Current Status of Owls, Hawks, etc.

- ◆ Who's doing well, who isn't and why?
- ◆ Where are they??

The Future

- ◆ What do they need for more success?
- ◆ What can we do (and not do)?
- ◆ Who will use boxes? Where?
- ◆ What's the future for the Rehab Center??

Tom Ricardi has been rescuing and rehabilitating injured birds of prey, mostly at his non-profit Birds of Prey Rehabilitation Center in Conway for nearly 60 years. He's saved hundreds of these magnificent avians, earning appreciation and awards throughout the region. Thousands of folks have witnessed the birds he's shared at events all over.

Now it's time to honor our home-town hero.

And for an in-depth discussion of how we can help protect this legacy.

Sunday, March 19th at 3 pm at the Conway Town Hall, 5 Academy Hill Rd.
