Activity coordinator check-in

Bruce is the serve safe manager for the UCC pie table and asked if he could set up a table close by to display information about the Shelburne Trolley Museum and history about the Conway Trolley. It was decided that there should be enough room to fit the table, perhaps on the tennis court behind the pie booth.

Hazel has been in touch with additional food vendors and has received commitments from Only Kabob and Las Tres Hermanos. Confirmed for both the car show on Saturday and the festival on Sunday are Cliffs BBQ and the Duck Pond vintage candy cart. Spuds with Love is also confirmed.

Hazel submitted an article for the Conway Currents regarding the need for volunteers. She will also post on the Festival's Facebook page as well as Next Door.

Dissolution of non-profit and transfer of funds to town.

Sue reported that she has also been contacted by Lawyers Clearing House and has applied for pro-bono assistance with the dissolution. The LCH cautioned that finding a pro-bono lawyer may take a while. Harvard

Law the non-profit on a waiting list so whichever organization can assist first will determine who the non-profit will move forward with.
